Dublin-Caſtle, January 26, 1799.

THE Houſes of Lords and Commons having reſolved upon humble Addreſſes to His Majeſty, the ſame were this Day preſented to the Lord Lieutenant for Tranſmiſſion; and alſo Addreſſes from both Houſes to his Excellency, which, with his Excellency's Anſwers, are as follow:

To his Excellency Charles, Marquis Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our humble Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne: and beg Leave to expreſs our grateful Senſe of His Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs, in continuing in the Government of this Kingdom a Nobleman whoſe high Character, diſtinguiſhed alike by public Virtue and by private Worth, and whoſe wiſe, firm, and ſalutary Adminiſtration entitle him to the Eſteem and Confidence of the People over whom he is appointed to preſide.

We receive with heartfelt Satisfaction your Excellency's Congratulations on the unexampled Atchievement of the Detachment of His Majeſty's Fleet under the Command of Rear-Admiral Lord Nelſon, on the total Defeat of the French Squadron off the Coaſts of this Kingdom by that under the Command of Sir John Borlaſe Warren, and alſo on the important Conqueſt of the Iſland of Minorca; and we unite with your Excellency in the Hope that the Confidence of the other Powers of Europe may by theſe Means be revived, and that they may be encouraged to ſuch ſtrenuous and perſevering Exertions as may effectually fruſtrate the deſtructive Ambition of the common Enemy.

We feel deep Regret that a Spirit of Diſaffection ſhould ſtill be found to prevail in different Parts of the Kingdom, and ſtill more that the ſecret Agents of the Enemy ſhould yet be able to raiſe an Expectation of freſh Aſſiſtance from France.

Convinced as we are of the Neceſſity of continuing the War with Vigour, His Majeſty ſhall not be diſappointed in the Reliance he is pleaſed to place in us. No Exertion on our Part ſhall be wanting in Support of the Honor of his Crown, the Intereſts of this Kingdom, and of the general Cauſe of the Empire.

It gives us the higheſt Satisfaction to learn from your Excellency that, notwithſtanding our internal Calamities, this Kingdom, blended as its Intereſts are in the general Proſperity of the Empire, has participated in the increaſing Wealth and Commerce of Great Britain, and that our Revenues and Trade have increaſed.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that we ſhall omit no Means in our Power for giving Countenance and Protection to the Agriculture and Manufactures of Ireland, and particularly to the Linen Manufacture, to the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and the other Charitable Eſtabliſhments which have hitherto enjoyed the Liberality of Parliament. Your Excellency may alſo rely on our paying the Attention due to the juſt and honorable Claims of thoſe who have ſuffered for their Loyalty during the Rebellion.

His Majeſty may be aſſured that we ſhall continue to exert our utmoſt Energy for repreſſing that Spirit of Diſaffection which we are fully ſenſible ſtill demands the Exerciſe of extraordinary Powers to check its malignant Effects. That in ſuch Acts of indiſpenſable Severity as have hitherto been reſorted to, your Excellency has endeavoured to mitigate the Effects of penal Juſtice by every poſſible Degree of Forbearance and Lenity, we deeply feel and gratefully acknowledge.

Intereſted as we are in the general Cauſe which engages the Empire, we contemplate, with the higheſt Satisfaction, its preſent encouraging Circumſtances, and we are reſolved to perſevere with redoubled Efforts until we can obtain a Peace on ſecure and honorable Terms.

We have ſeen with equal Approbation and Gratitude the Zeal of His Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces, the Gallantry of the Yeomanry, the honorable Co-operation of the Britiſh Fencibles and Militia, and the Activity, Skill, and Valour of His Majeſty's Fleets; and on their continued Exertions we rely with Firmneſs for the Defeat of any future Effort of the Enemy.

We are gratefully indebted to your Excellency for having made the Situation and Circumſtances of this Kingdom the Subject of your Reflection, and we ſhall pay the moſt ſerious Attention to that Part of your Excellency's Speech in which you ſtate, that " when you conſider on the one Hand the Strength " and Stability of Great Britain, and on the other " thoſe Diviſions which have ſhaken Ireland to its " Foundations, you are the more anxious for ſome " permanent Adjuſtment, which may extend the " Advantages enjoyed by our Sifter Kingdom to " every Part of this Iſland."

The unremitting Induſtry with which our Enemies perſevere in their avowed Deſign of endeavouring to effect a Separation of this Kingdom from Great Britain, have indeed engaged our particular Attention; and in Conformity to the anxious Hope expreſſed by his Majeſty, that this Conſideration, joined to the Sentiment of mutual Affection and common Intereſt, may diſpoſe the Parliaments in both Kingdoms to provide the moſt effectual Means of maintaining and improving a Connexion eſſential to their common Security, and of conſolidating, as far as poſſible, into one firm and laſting Fabric the Strength, the Power, and the Reſources of the Britiſh Empire, we ſhall not omit to give to this important Subject the fulleſt Deliberation.

John Gayer, D. Cler. Parl.

His Excellency's Anſwer.

My Lords,

I RETURN you my unfeigned Thanks for your affectionate and kind Addreſs. The Zeal which you have manifeſted for cementing the Connexion of this Kingdom with Great Britain, and for conſolidating the Reſources of the Empire, muſt be highly pleaſing to His Majeſty.

My humble Attempts to deſerve your good Opinions have been anxious and ſincere, and I ſhall ſteadily purſue that Line of Conduct which already received your Approbation.

To his Excellency Charles, Marquis Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our humble Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

It is with the warmeſt Emotions of Gratitude we acknowledge that His Majeſty's Reign has been replete with Inſtances of his unremitting Solicitude for the Proſperity and Happineſs of this Kingdom, and on no Occaſion has his anxious Regard for its Welfare been more conſpicuouſly or beneficially manifeſted than in the Continuance of a Nobleman as its Chief Governor, whoſe Life has been diſtinguiſhed by the eminent Services he has rendered to the Empire, as well in the Cabinet as in the Field, and whoſe exalted Character, private Virtues, ingratiating Manners, and wiſe, juſt, firm, and impartial Councils, cannot fail to conciliate the Affections and ſecure the Confidence of the People entruſted to his Care.

Permit us to expreſs the grateful Pleaſure with which we receive your Excellency's Congratulations on the ſplendid and unexampled Victory obtained by the Detachment of His Majeſty's Fleet under Rear-Admiral Lord Nelſon, which, whether we conſider its deciſive Reſult, the Diſcipline and Intrepidity evinced by the Officers and Seamen, or the Courage and Capacity diſplayed by their Commander, muſt ever be regarded as the moſt glorious Atchievement in the Naval Hiſtory of Great Britain; the complete Diſcomfiture of the French Squadron by that under the Command of that able and gallant Officer Sir John Borlaſe Warren off the Coaſt of this Kingdom, as alſo the valuable Acquiſition of the Iſland of Minorca, afford us additional Matter of the higheſt Satisfaction; theſe brilliant and important Events, whilſt they prove the Vigilance and Vigour of His Majeſty's Meaſures in the Proſecution of the War, will, we truſt, revive the Confidence of other Powers, and excite them to ſtrenuous and perſevering Exertions againſt thoſe Machinations of the common Enemy, which tend ſo directly to the Subjugation of every independent State and the Subverſion of all civil Liberty and ſocial Happineſs.

We feel, in common with your Excellency, a deep Concern that a Spirit of Diſaffection ſhould yet be found prevalent in ſeveral Parts of the Kingdom, and we cannot repreſs our Indignation that the ſecret Agents of the Enemy are ſtill indefatigable in promoting the Expectations of their deluded Followers to freſh Aſſiſtance from France.

Fully ſenſible that in the preſent Situation of Affairs the Honor of His Majeſty's Crown and the Security of the Empire demand the moſt active Exertions, and being firmly convinced of the Importance of the Objects for which we are contending, we declare our ſtedfaſt and unalterable Reſolution to afford His Majeſty all poſſible Support in the Proſecution of this moſt juſt and neceſſary War.

We thank your Excellency for having ordered the Public Accounts and Eſtimates to be laid before us, and your Excellency may rely on our making a Proviſion adequate to this arduous Conjuncture, having an entire Confidence that what we ſhall grant with Cheerfulneſs will be applied with Integrity, Prudence, and Oeconomy.

It is a Subject of much Satisfaction to us that, owing to the happy and beneficial Manner in which the Intereſts of this Kingdom are blended with the general Proſperity of the Empire, this Country has, notwithſtanding its internal Calamities, participated in the Effects of the growing Wealth and Commerce of Great Britain, and that our Revenues and Trade have increaſed.

Your Excellency may depend on our moſt ſtudiouſly extending our Care to thoſe great Sources of public Revenue and of public Strength, the Agriculture, Commerce, and Manufactures of the Country, particularly the Linen Manufacture, and to all the various Objects of internal Regulation which have uſually ſhared our Attention. Attached alſo as we are to the general Cauſe of Religion, Learning, and Civilization, we ſhall not omit to afford our accuſtomed Protection to the Charter Schools, and other Charitable Inſtitutions; and we ſhall not fail to provide farther Relief for thoſe Perſons who have ſuffered for their Loyalty during the Rebellion, and who have ſo juſt and honorable a Claim for our Aid and Countenance.

His Majeſty may be aſſured that no Exertions ſhall be wanting on our Part to counteract that daring Spirit of Diſſaffection which ſtill requires the Exerciſe of extraordinary Powers to check its malignant Effects; and we pledge ourſelves to give to your Excellency our fulleſt Co-operation and Support in preſerving internal Order and Tranquillity. We beg Leave to offer our humble Tribute of Approbation to that ſalutary Principle of your Excellency's Adminiſtration by which the Meaſures of a juſt and indiſpenſable Severity have been tempered with Mercy, and by which the Effects of penal Juſtice and the neceſſary Exertions of the Powers of the State have been mitigated with as much Forbearance and Lenity as could be conſiſtent with the public Safety.

We ſincerely rejoice that our Proſpect in the general Cauſe which engages the Empire is materially improved; and we are firmly perſuaded that the Termination of the War on ſecure and honorable Terms can only be effectually accelerated by the increaſed Vigour of our Efforts in the Proſecution of it.

The Zeal of His Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces, the Gallantry of the Yeomanry, the honorable Co-operation of the Britiſh Fencibles and Militia, and the Activity, Skill, and Valour of His Majeſty's Fleets, furniſh Matter of the moſt juſt Exultation; their Example will animate others, and will convince our Enemies of what they have to apprehend from a brave People, fired with the moſt ardent Attachment for their King and Country. The deep Reflection which your Excellency has beſtowed on the Circumſtances of this Kingdom, together with the Intereſt you manifeſt for its Welfare and Happineſs, call for our grateful Acknowledgments; and we ſhall not neglect to apply our moſt ſerious Attention to that Part of your Excellency's Speech, in which you ſtate, that when you conſider on the one Hand the Strength and Stability of Great Britain, and on the other thoſe Diviſions which have ſhaken Ireland to its Foundation, the more anxious you feel for ſome permanent Adjuſtment which may extend the Advantages enjoyed by our Siſter Kingdom to every Part of this Iſland.

G. F. Hill, Cler. Dom. Com.

His Excellency's Anſwer:

YOUR kind Addreſs, which conveys an Approbation of my Conduct in ſuch marked and flattering Language, is highly grateful to my Feelings.

I am aſſured that in this arduous Conjuncture you will ſteadily purſue thoſe Meaſures which will be moſt effectual for increaſing the Strength of the Empire, and employing its Revenues, againſt the common Enemy; and I ſhall faithfully repreſent to His Majeſty your Zeal for His Service and for the general Intereſts of Great Britain and Ireland.
